Some might call this a luxury room, we call it a space of uncommon comforts elevated to their most-rustic and serene.

Here at Edgewood Tahoe, surprise is always on the menu. Playful, original flavours served in settings that include golf-inspired casual, an energetic bistro, and an enchanting, lake view dining experience framed by majestic floor-to-ceiling windows. Each of our restaurants is distinguished by an elite team of nationally recognized chefs who are rapidly putting us on the map as a must-visit gastro destination. Welcome to the new definitions of delicious.

The warmth and familiarity of the immaculate architecture and the panoramic views of the property and lake provide a sense of openness and light as diners enjoy hand-crafted meals and carefully selected wines and cocktails.
